

VICE CHANCELLOR USMS VISITS DARGAH OF SHAH ABDUL LATIF BHITTAI BHITSHAH

Prof. Dr. Imamuddin Khoso, Vice Chancellor of the University of Sufism and Modern Sciences (USMS), Bhitshah, paid a formal visit to the revered Dargah of Hazrat Shah Abdul Latif Bhattai today to seek spiritual inspiration and pay homage to the great Sufi poet and philosopher.

On his arrival, the Vice Chancellor was warmly received by Qaim Maqam Gadee Nasheen, Syed Mustafa Hassan Latify, and Syed Jawad Shah, who welcomed him to the shrine in a respectful and cordial manner. The visit reflected the university's deep-rooted connection with the spiritual legacy of Shah Abdul Latif Bhattai, which forms the philosophical foundation of the institution.

VICE CHANCELLOR USMS VISITS DARGAH OF SHAH ABDUL LATIF BHITTAI BHITSHAH

During the interaction, Qaim Maqam Saeen Syed Mustafa Hassan Latify shared his insightful views on Sufism and highlighted its enduring significance in promoting peace, tolerance, and harmony in society. He emphasized the relevance of Sufi thought in addressing contemporary intellectual and social challenges.

The participants appreciated that the University of Sufism and Modern Sciences is in capable and visionary hands under the leadership of Prof. Dr. Imamuddin Khoso. They expressed confidence that the Vice Chancellor possesses a clear understanding of the essence of Sufism and its meaningful integration with modern and contemporary knowledge.

VICE CHANCELLOR USMS VISITS DARGAH OF SHAH ABDUL LATIF BHITTAI BHITSHAH

A large number of faculty members, officers, and staff of the university accompanied the Vice Chancellor during the visit, underscoring the collective respect and commitment of the university community toward the spiritual heritage of Bhitshah.

The visit concluded with prayers for the progress, peace, and continued success of the University of Sufism and Modern Sciences under its new leadership.